

MEMORIAL TO T. R. PLANNED TO RIVAL CITY'S GREATEST

Elihu Root and Committee Here Tomorrow to Look for Site.

Elihu Root, chairman of the committee of the Roosevelt Memorial Association having charge of the erection of a monumental memorial here, will be in Washington tomorrow, with members of his committee, to inspect sites and discuss plans for the memorial.

Col. William Boyce Thompson, of New York, president of the association, with Herman Hagedorn, secretary, and Charles Moore, chairman of the National Fine Arts Commission, of Washington, yesterday made a thorough survey of possible sites under the direction of Moore, whose commission is co-operating actively in the work of the association.

While it will be impossible to decide upon a site until the design will have been determined, the possibilities of location will also influence the officials in the selection of a design.

Park at Oyster Bay.

"The purpose of this association," said Col. Thompson, "is to erect a monumental memorial in Washington to rank with the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial. In addition, a Roosevelt memorial park will be created at Oyster Bay. For this work nearly $2,000,000 has already been subscribed by the American people."

"While I admit the response to the appeal of the Memorial Association was not as strong as there was in it really no cause for astonishment. Roosevelt had been deeply loved by his fellow Americans and never followed more devotedly than during the last years of his life. It was to be expected that those who had thus loved and followed him would be eager to do him honor."

All Go Over Top.

"What was not to be expected was that Panama and Hawaii and the Philippines would stand in the forefront of devoted States with Missouri and New Jersey; that the latter island of Molokai would ask to be allowed to contribute; that Alaska would go over the top, and even Chili and China and the Virgin Islands send each their sheaf of contributions."

The Roosevelt Memorial Association was the result of a meeting held three days after the death of Theodore Roosevelt, when a large number of his admirers met and chose Col. Thompson as president. On May 31 last the association was incorporated by Congress, and branches of the association have since been established in every State in the Union.

The committee on a Monumental Memorial in Washington, which meets in Washington Friday, is composed, in addition to Chairman Elihu Root, of James C. McMillan, James P. Goodrich, George Harbo, Hiram W. Johnson, Frank B. Kellogg, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Raymond Robins, Julius Rosenberg, Leonard Wood and Luke E. Wright.

YANKEE STYLE INVADERS PARIS

Tables Turning Across Sea In Dress Leadership For Women.

By WINIFRED VAN DUZER.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—For the first time in the history of feminine dress an attempt will be made soon to introduce American styles in Paris.

This will be the initial step in an effort to make "imported from New York" mean to France what "imported from Paris" heretofore has meant in this country.

Madame Frances, head of the exclusive Frances, Inc., shop on Fifty-sixth street just off the Avenue, today admitted that she sails for Paris within the week to take charge of a studio which just has been opened by her firm.

Even while she denied that the studio will be opened to allow women of Paris to become enamored of American garments, she so stoutly indorsed the policy which has characterized her leadership in the fashion world of "American styles" that her denial seemed perfunctory.

When Madame Frances returned from her last visit to the American Capital in August, she told me that she had sold gowns to a half dozen American and English women who happened to run across her store, and who, dissatisfied with what they found in Paris shops, compelled the little American modiste to part with even her own wardrobe.

Her clientele here includes some of the wealthiest and most fashionable society women, as well as many stage and screen stars noted for spectacular dress, and, although it is one of the youngest modistes in New York, her word wields powerful influence in the world of women's clothes.

Mrs. Harding to Shop in New York for Wardrobe

MARION, O., Dec. 8.—One woman shopper from Marion, Ohio, who knows what she wants and won't take anything less will soon have New York modistes jumping over counters displaying the goods with great eagerness.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding, next first lady of the land, is going to the "city" to buy her White House clothes.

Mrs. Harding hasn't decided just what she will buy but she may change her mind several times as New York shopkeepers will have to guess along in laying in their stocks for the present.

"I didn't have a minute during the campaign to buy any clothes," Mrs. Harding said, discussing the state of her wardrobe, "but I'm going to make up for it now."

$33,000,000 FUND FOR EUROPEAN AID SUPPORTED HERE

Welfare Workers in First Step to Rush Relief to The Needy Abroad.

Herbert Hoover's appeal to the people of the United States for $33,000,000 to save the lives of millions of children in Central Europe received a prompt response in Washington Tuesday, when preliminary steps were taken to organize one of the greatest combinations for raising money for foreign relief that have been made in the District since the war.

At a meeting held at the board room of the Y. W. C. A., representatives of the seven leading welfare bodies were in attendance within twenty-four hours after A. C. Moses received his official appointment as chairman of the District of Columbia committee.

On motion from Gerson Nordlinger, of the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, it was decided to form an executive committee comprised of a representative from every social, commercial and religious organization in the city, in addition to those already appointed from the welfare associations.

Dr. Vernon Kellogg, American Relief Association, who was among the committeemen present, said the necessity for prompt relief was urgent and that all other demands made upon the people of America fade into insignificance when compared to the present crisis. As an associate of Mr. Hoover's abroad Dr. Kellogg's words bore considerable weight with the gathering and the eagerness with which those in the room pledged their support indicated the realization of his hearers to the existing state of destitution and want among the coming generation of Central Europe.

The fact that five cents will save a child a day and $10 keep that child from starvation for six months is to be the watch word of the campaign.

Headquarters were opened yesterday by Arthur C. Moses, chairman of the committee, on the second floor of the building at the northeast corner of Thirteenth and F streets.

Charles O'Neill, president of the Rotary Club, and Roland Robbins, of Keith's, representing the theater managers, were among those present, who pledged their co-operation.

The campaign will open Sunday, December 19, when all the churches will be asked to co-operate in taking up collections.

Among the organizations and their representatives on the committee thus far are: American Relief Association—Dr. Vernon Kellogg; American Red Cross—David Brown and Dr. Ralph Jenkins; Y. M. C. A.—Howard Sutherland; George L. Goodwin, C. S. Robb and Clifford L. Johnson; American Friends Service Committee—T. J. Janney; Jewish Joint Distribution Committee—Gerson Nordlinger; and Harry King; Y. W. C. A.—Mrs. W. H. Bayly and Miss Elizabeth Eastman; Knights of Columbus—M. J. McAuliffe and M. D. Schaefer.

Charles O'Neill, president of the Rotary Club, and Roland Robbins, of Keith's, representing the theater managers, were among those present, who pledged their co-operation.

Dec. 15 Income Taxes Will Not Be Deferred

Congress will not pass emergency legislation deferring payment of the fourth income and excess profits tax installment due December 15. This became practically certain yesterday when Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee discussed the plea of a delegation from the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, who stated that disaster faces the business interests unless payment is postponed.

No action was taken, but with the government badly in the need of money, the proposed deferment, it was suggested, would be unbusinesslike.
